

D:

- 1 [...] measured (despite) mist, (the moon) was low to the sun; the moon was 1² cubit in front of Saturn
- 2 [...] clouds were in the sky, the north wind blew; in the afternoon, very overcast.
- 3 [...] lightning flashed continuously, much thunder
- 4 [...] wai]ling [...], rain DUL, the north wind blew.
- 5 [...] the north wind blew; in the afternoon, very overcast.
- 6 [...] clouds were in the sky. The 8th, clouds were in the sky
- 7 [...] were in the sky, gusty south wind; in the afternoon, overcast.
- 8 [...] thin [clouds] were in the sky, the north wind blew.
- 9 [...] haze covered the sky
- 10 [...] clouds were in the sky, the north wind blew.
- 11 [...] 3 cubits [...] δ / β] Scorpii
- 12 [...] were [in the sky], the north wind blew. Night of the 15th, moonrise to sunset: 1° 40', mea[sured (despite)] mist
- 13 [...] last part of the night,] the moon was 1 cubit behind ϑ Ophiuchi
- 14 [...] were in the sky; last part of the night, the moon was in front of
- 15 [...] were in the sky, lightning flashed continuously
- 16 [...] the moon was [...] behind δ Capricorni
- 17 [...] at noon, gusty north wind
- 18 [...] blew.

'Rev.

(traces)

Upper edge

- 1 [...] [...]
- 2 [...] Se]leucia which is on the Euphrates
- 3 [...] king Arsaces.